DIRECTORS' REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 1st, 1892.

To the Members of the Underwriters' Fire Patrol of San Francisco.

GENTLEMEN: The Directors beg to report that everything connected with this Corporation is in excellent condition, and admirably answering every demand which is made upon it, except the pair of horses ("Fred" and "Fannie"), which belong to No. 3 wagon, one of which is no longer fit for this service. This team has done admirable service for years, and will be replaced as soon as possible—an order to this effect having been issued by the Directors.

The Directors refer with pleasure to the continued good work of the Patrol under the efficient lieutenants, Messrs. C. H. Okell and J. F. O. Comstock; and all under the painstaking care of Captain Russell White, Superintendent, who has been in continuous service as such since the establishing of the Patrol, about eighteen years ago.

The Directors also refer with unfeigned pleasure to the continued and hearty good will and co-operation, which has existed during all of these years, between the San Francisco Fire Department and the "Underwriters' Fire Patrol of S. F."; it is most extraordinary and satisfactory, tending, in a marked degree, to increase the efficiency of both of these services. THEY HAVE PULLED TOGETHER AS ONE.

The Directors desire to express their hearty thanks to Chief of Police Crowley, and all of the officers and members of the San Francisco police force; to the Fire Alarm and Police Telegraph service; to the Fire Marshal, Charles Towe, Esq.; to the American District Telegraph, and Telephone Companies, and to friends and well-wishers generally.

Very respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. G. COFRAN, Vice-President.	}	Directors
WILLIAM MACDONALD,
GEORGE W. SPENCER,
JNO. SCOTT WILSON,
ISIDOR GUTTE,
RUDOLPH HEROLD, JR., Sec. and Treas.	}
CHAS. A. LATON, President.

SUPERINTENDENT WHITE'S REPORT.

HEADQUARTERS FIRE PATROL,
106 AND 108 JESSIE STREET, SAN FRANCISCO, }

To the President and Board of Directors of the Underwriters' Fire Patrol.

GENTLEMEN : In accordance with the custom of former years, I hereby submit this, my seventeenth annual report, showing the workings of the Force for the year commencing January 1, 1891, and ending December 31, 1891.

Annexed will be found tables showing location of fires, insurance and losses on same, duty performed by the Force, and other information collected from time to time which, if carefully perused, would be of interest to the insurance fraternity and the public generally.

The expenses for maintaining the Force seem at a glance large, but they will compare favorably with those of other cities. It is imperatively demanded that the Patrol be kept up to a reasonable standard of efficiency and that there should be no step backwards. All this involves expense, and yet, compared relatively with the small amount each company pays, it is not expensive.

It gives me great satisfaction to note that the discipline and general morale of the force are excellent.

The officers and men at both stations have all rendered cheerful service, and have been prompt in the performance of their duty.

All requirements and rules have been practically enforced and readily complied with.

Few changes in membership have occurred, showing thereby the great advantage resulting from the employment of experienced men.

No department can be efficient without a moderate discipline. It is desirable to the men themselves, and gives character and confidence to everyone.

The apparatus has all been tested at proper intervals, and its reliability and efficiency guaranteed.

The horses are all in fine condition except the "babies," Fred and Fannie. They have been in service since April, 1886, and now show signs of unfitness for the work required of them. This fact has already been reported and orders have been received to purchase another team.

In closing I will say that I have been ably supported by President, Mr. Charles A. Laton, and the Board of Directors—they having co-operated with me in making the Patrol what it is to-day, SECOND TO NONE.

Allow me to return my thanks to the officers and men under my command for their promptness in obeying all orders given them at all times.

I desire to express my sincere thanks to Chief David Scannell, Assistant Chief Dennis Sullivan; engineers of their respective districts; every foreman and every member of the fire department; Fire Marshal, Charles Towe; Superintendent of Fire and Police Alarm Telegraph; Mr. C. J. Thomas, and men under his charge; Chief of Police Crowley; Captain Douglass; Captain Short, and all officers and members of the police force, for your assistance at any and all times. Again to you all, gentlemen, I beg to return my sincere acknowledgements.

Yours most obedient,

RUSSELL WHITE,
Superintendent Fire Patrol.
